

Congratulations Fusion WA . . . . on your new launch, "Cloudy Bay"

This magnificent Fusion 40 was lovingly assembled by Kate and Lloyd together with their exceptional tradespersons and just looking at the detail in the pictures shows the value of working with these very professional people.

An interesting and not so common feature is the galley down, this works very well when a lot of entertaining is anticipated.

An article will appear in the next issue of Australian Multihulls Magazine

